USAWOA NATIONAL AWARDS MANUAL

Revised: 1 April 2020
Re-Numbered: 10 February 2021
Revised 1 November 2022

FOREWORD

This manual was developed by the United States Army Warrant Officers Association (USAWOA) National Board of Directors with the direction of the members of USAWOA under the authority contained in the USAWOA Bylaws and approved by the Board of Directors with an effective date of 1 April 2020. This manual is binding on all members, chapters, regions, members of appointed committees and councils, National Headquarters staff, contractors, consultants, Executive Director, all elected officials or other individuals or any companies under contract with USAWOA. The USAWOA legal counsel will ensure that all contracts and/or agreements contain provisions for compliance with appropriate sections.

The original manual was adopted in 1998 and modified over time. This manual contains extracts from the original procedures and Bylaws, plus amendments and additions gained through the experience acquired during previous years. This manual is designated to unify the Association and serve to answer any member's questions about the USAWOA Awards Program.

The National Board of Directors, with an effective date of 1 April 2020, has approved this edition of the manual. The National Board of Directors further directed the numbering convention be changed to align this operating manual with those By-Laws and Manuals previously published.

This manual has been changed significantly since its last revision and such changes warrant a new effective date. The new effective date will be 1 November 2022.

Amendments and additions to this manual are encouraged and should be addressed to the National President or the Executive Director, USAWOA, 462 Herndon Parkway, Suite 207, Herndon, Virginia 20170-5235.

BY DIRECTION OF THE NATIONAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS

CHAPTER I OBJECTIVES

1. OBJECTIVE: The objective of the USAWOA Awards Program is to:
 - a. Foster morale, incentive, esprit de corps, and recognition to members and non-members.
 - b. Formalize a program by which the National Board of Directors, Regions, and Chapters can recognize outstanding performance or service by individuals and chapters.
 - c. Recognize the dedication, service, and professionalism of members and non-members who have contributed to the goals of the USAWOA. Service is for the United States Army, the United States Army Warrant Officer Cohort, the USAWOA, and/or the surrounding military communities.

2. GENERAL ELIGIBILITY FOR AWARDS: The following are the general eligibility criteria for each type of award:
 - a. Individual Member Awards - Eligibility for this type of award requires the member be in good standing. A member in good standing is defined as any member whose dues are current and they are an active participant in their chapter activities. Only the BOD as an exception to this manual may approve the awarding of an Individual Member Award to anyone not a USAWOA member.
 - b. Auxiliary Member Award - Eligibility for this type of award requires the auxiliary member to be a member in good standing with a USAWOA-recognized Auxiliary.
 - c. Non-Member Awards - Eligibility for this type of award requires that the non-member made noteworthy contributions and dedicated service to the USAWOA. Examples: Honorary and/or Associate Membership.
 - d. Region Awards - Eligibility for this type of award requires that the region have a minimum of three (3) active chapters. The region must be an active or inactive Region. Active Regions have their own elected officials and may institute their own programs.
 - e. Chapter Awards - Eligibility for this type of award requires the chapter to be a regular or auxiliary chapter.
 - f. National awards would apply to Regions and Chapters and may or may not have a winner in each category.

3. RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW AWARDS:

a. Any chapter or member can recommend the establishment of a new award. Recommendations for new awards must be sent to National Headquarters for approval. The form recommending a new award, listed in appendix A, must be completed in its entirety and must be forwarded to National Headquarters as the official request. Electronic versions are acceptable.

b. Upon receipt, the National Headquarters staff will refer the recommendation to the National Vice President and National Awards Committee Chairperson.

c. Recommendations received by the Awards Committee will be staffed with all committee members. Recommendations favorably considered will be emailed by the National Secretary to the National Board of Directors for approval. Recommendations not favorably considered will be returned by email to the chapter/individual by the National Awards Committee Chairperson – with a copy to the National Vice President – within 30 days, with rationale for disapproval and suggested areas requiring improvement or better justification needed for approval.

4. NOMINATIONS FOR EXISTING AWARDS:

a. Nominations for awards that require a formal nomination and approval at the National, Region, or Chapter level will be forwarded utilizing the format in Appendix B. Awards can be submitted electronically.

b. Nominations for awards that are not required to be submitted directly to National Headquarters will be routed through the respective Chapter or Region for endorsement by the Chapter President or Region Director.

c. Award nominations must be received at National Headquarters no later than the 15th of August of each year. Award nominations received after the cut-off date – or not in the specified format, as listed in the appropriate appendix – will be returned to the nominator without action. This timeline does not apply to the Honorable Order of the Eagle Rising Awards or the USAWOA Award for Excellence.

c. National-level awards, as described in subparagraph d. (immediately herein above), will have automatic consideration by the National Awards Committee. The committee will review the chapter minutes to determine the Winner and Runner-Up in each category. These awards do not require nominations for the chapters or individual members.

e. Nominations for the Albert M. Holcombe Memorial Award will be forwarded utilizing the form in Appendix B. Only one instance of the award will be presented yearly.

f. Nominations for the Virginia Holcombe Memorial Award will be forwarded utilizing the form in Appendix B. Only one instance of the award will be presented yearly.

g. Nominations for the Don Hess Lifetime Achievement award will be forwarded utilizing the form in Appendix B, accompanied by a list of the member's contributions to the Association/Warrant Officer cohort, covering a period of no less than 10 years. Only one instance of the award will be presented yearly.

h. All individual awards should be endorsed by the Chapter President and the Regional Director. This endorsement can be submitted electronically.

5. AWARDS YEAR FOR NATIONAL LEVEL AWARDS: The awards year will be from 1 July to 30 June of each given year. This covers all awards that must be considered and chosen by the National Awards Committee. This timeline does not cover the Honorable Order of the Eagle Rising Awards, nor the USAWOA Award For Excellence.

6. RECONSIDERATION OF DISAPPROVED AWARDS: When a nomination is disapproved, the approving authority may reconsider the nomination for a lower-level award. Nominations previously disapproved by an approving authority may be resubmitted for reconsideration providing that new or improved justification or evidence is furnished.

7. PROCUREMENT OF AWARDS: Regions and Chapters are encouraged to order their awards from a source approved by the National Headquarters. Each Region or Chapter is responsible for ordering and funding awards presented at their level.

8. PRESENTATION OF AWARDS: The National, Region, or Chapter Presidents (or their designated representatives) will present all awards for their respective levels. Ceremonies may range from formal presentations at annual meetings to small office ceremonies at which the citation will be read and the award presented to the recipient. Most National Level Awards will be presented during the Annual Meeting of the Members Awards Banquet.

9. PUBLICITY: Winners of USAWOA awards will be given maximum publicity in the Newsliner and other media as appropriate. The Executive Director and the Newsliner Editor should be furnished with photographs and press releases of all awards.

10. CONFIDENTIALITY OF AWARD WINNERS: Award winners, for all levels of awards, will not be announced or publicized until presentation at an awards ceremony.

CHAPTER II

APPENDIX ENational Awards Committee Procedures

1. Best Retention Award.

a. The chapter award for retention was computed based on the following criteria:

(1.) Chapter strength was determined based on the average strength for the award year. This figure was derived from the semi-annual meeting reports.

(2.) Life members were subtracted from each chapter's average strength. This gave a baseline membership for computing the renewal percentage.

(3.) The total amount of chapter renewals was computed based on the monthly rebate reports.

(4.) The total chapter renewals are then divided by the average chapter membership strength to give the percentage of chapter renewals.

b. Determination of award nominees: The committee nominated all active chapters that met a 90 percent or higher renewal rate.

c. Award Winner: The Chapter with the highest resultant percentage.

2. Best Recruiting Award.

(1) The chapter award for recruiting was computed based on the following criteria: (1.) Chapter strength was determined based on the average strength for the award year. This figure was derived from the semi-annual meeting reports. This gave a baseline membership for computing the new member percentage.

(2.) The total amount of new members for each chapter was computed based on the monthly rebate report.

(3.) The total new members by chapter are then divided by the average chapter membership strength to give the percentage of chapter new members.

b. Determination for award nominees: The committee nominated all active chapters that met a 50 percent or higher new member rate.

c. Award Winner: The Chapter with the highest resultant percentage.

6. Highest Recruiting Award.

a. The chapter award for highest recruiting was computed based on the highest amount of new members as computed from the monthly rebate reports.

b. Determination for award nominees: The committee nominated all active chapters that recruited 10 or more new members.

c. Award Winner: The Chapter with the greatest number of new members.

7. Overall Best Chapter for Recruiting and Retention.

a. The chapter award for recruiting and retention was computed based on the following criteria:

(1) The chapter has been nominated for an award in any of the award categories of recruitment, retention or highest recruitment.

(2) Each chapter is then ranked within each of the three award categories.

b. Determination for award nominees: The award is based on the lowest combined ranking total.

c. Award Winner: The Chapter with the highest combined ranking.

8. Overall Best Region for Recruitment and Retention.

a. The region award for recruitment and retention was computed based on the following criteria:

(1) The region must have three active chapters and must have a qualifying chapter in each of the award categories of recruitment, retention or highest recruitment.

(2) Each region is then ranked within each of the three award categories.

b. Determination for award nominees: The award is based on the lowest combined ranking total.

c. Award Winner: The Region with the highest combined ranking.

9. Best Professional Development Program.

a. The President's Award for Professional Development was determined from a review of the chapter minutes on the depth of the subject discussed.

b. Award Winner: The Chapter was selected for conducting the best professional development program during the award year.

10. Community Affairs Award for Donations.

a. The award for community affairs for donations was determined from a review of the minutes for all active chapters and the total amount donated by the chapter members. (In the past, we have used total monies donated.)

b. Award Winner: The Chapter which contributed the most financial assistance to their community throughout the award year.

11. Community Affairs Award for Services.

a. The award for community affairs for donations was determined from a review of the minutes for all active chapters. The Awards Committee reviewed all chapter minutes for the award year that contained information regarding the community services performed.

b. Award Winner: The Chapter with the best community services program during the award year.

12. Community Affairs Award for Sustaining Programs.

a. The award for community affairs for sustaining programs was determined from a review of the minutes for all active chapters. The Awards Committee reviewed all chapter minutes for the award year that contained information regarding any sustaining community services program.

b. Award Winner: The Chapter with the best community sustaining services program during the award year.

13. Best Web Site Award.

a. The awards for the best web site are determined by the currency and relevancy of the information and easy and speeds of use kept up for the whole awards year. Other considerations are the ease of navigation and appearance. Consider the three click rule.

b. The committee votes on the sites and recommends the winner for the best chapter site.

14. National President's Award. Awarded by the USAWOA President to an individual or group for accomplishments for the U.S. Army, the Warrant Officer Corps and/or USAWOA.

15. Chapter Longevity Awards.

a. Streamers are awarded to chartered chapters of the USAWOA for loyal service. This recognition is for the significant efforts to the United States Army, the Warrant Officer Corps, USAWOA and the surrounding military communities.

b. The committee recommends these award streamers to chapters in 5-year increments starting with the year the chapter was chartered by USAWOA. (Example, 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, etc.)

16. The Virginia M. Holcombe Memorial Award for Warrant Officer Spouse of the Year. Nominated by any member through the USAWOA channels to the Awards Committee Chairman. Must be in the proper format and provide adequate justification. Nominations are voted on by the committee members.

17. The Albert Holcombe Memorial Award for Warrant Officer of the Year. Nominated by any member through the USAWOA channels to the Awards Committee Chairman. Must be in the proper format and provide adequate justification. Nominations are voted on by the committee members.

15. The Don Hess Lifetime Achievement Award. Nominated by any member to the National Secretary who will forward it to the National Board of Directors. This award is to recognize that member who has devoted a majority of their time promoting and supporting the USAWOA. The minimum time of membership for consideration is 10 continuous years as a member in good standing.

NOTE: In some categories not all awards will be awarded each year.

APPENDIX G WEAR OF THE HOER AND AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

The Honorable Order of the Rising Eagle and The USAWOA Award for Excellence Medallion Guidance for Wear:

AR 670–1 20–12. Badges authorized for wear on Army uniforms:

d. Badges of civic and quasi-military societies of the United States and international organizations of a military nature. These include badges of organizations originally composed of members who served in a U.S. force during the Revolutionary War; the War of 1812; the Mexican War; the Civil War; the Spanish- American War; the Philippine Insurrection; and the Chinese Relief Expedition of 1900. These also include badges (such as medallions) issued by military (regimental) associations. The badges are worn only while the wearer is actually attending meetings or functions of such organizations, or on occasions of ceremony (as authorized by the commander). Personnel will not wear these badges to and from such meetings or events. Items must be similar to those authorized by AR 670–1 and worn in the same manner.

Army Blue Mess or Army white Mess Uniform:

The Honorable Order of the Rising Eagle and the USAWOA Award for Excellence medallion should be worn with ribbon around the neck, outside the shirt collar and inside the coat collar. The medallion should hang at the full length of the ribbon.

Army Blue, Army White, or Army Green Uniform:

The Honorable Order of the Rising Eagle and the USAWOA Award for Excellence medallion will hang with ribbon around the neck, outside the shirt collar, and inside the coat collar. The medallion should hang over the four-in-hand necktie near the collar, and above the top bottom of the coat, or just under the bow tie, or neck tab, near the collar and above the top button of the coat. Proper positioning may necessitate pinning the ribbon together approximately three inches from the ribbon ends.

Civilian Attire:

Men should wear the medallion around the neck with the ribbon over the shirt collar and inside the coat collar. Whether worn with bow tie or four-in-hand necktie, the medallion should hang at full length. Ladies should wear the medallion around the neck with the medallion hanging at full length of the ribbon.

General Information:

The medallion will be worn with the Rising Eagle facing out and in full view and the Warrant Officer rank insignias facing the chest. The Honorable Order of the Rising Eagle medallion should be worn only at USAWOA functions, such as formal chapter social events during the installation of national, regional or chapter officers or promotion ceremonies where his/her branch attendees are primary audience Warrant Officer Birthday Ball or USAWOA Balls/Banquets (Chapters and National level events). Awardees will not wear The Honorable Order of the Rising Eagle medallion to and from such meetings or events.
